

faith • spirituality • social justice

The Richard Mauthe Center
2418 Leon Bond Drive
Green Bay, WI 54311
920-465-5133
Website: www.mcenter.org
Email: info@mcenter.org

We're looking for someone who is:

- interested in faith, spirituality, or social justice
- open to learning from diverse perspectives
- curious about the world and its traditions
- collaborative with colleagues and volunteers
- people oriented and enjoys making connections
- welcoming to students and our inter-generational community

NON PROFIT SOCIAL JUSTICE INTERNSHIP

September 2022 to May 2023

Flexible hours—around 10 hours per week

Paid

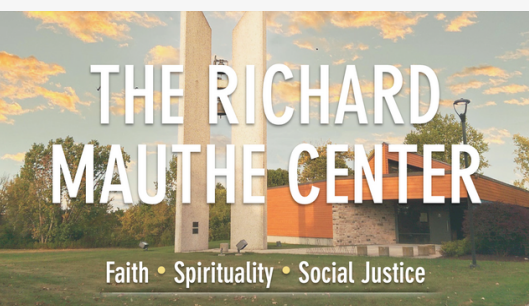

The Richard Mauthe Center is a non profit organization located on the UWGB campus, but independent of the university. The mission is to provide a safe environment for students and community members to explore faith, nurture the spiritual life and serve others. Our vision emphasizes respect, peace and justice. Join our team of staff and students to strengthen your professional development skills.

What you will do:

- Apply your studies to help Program Manger coordinate events that bring together students and community leaders for dialogue on topics that examine the complexities and intersections of race, identity, privilege, and education through the eyes of a diverse group of individuals.
- Help facilitate partnerships with local community-based organizations that support civic engagement in the community.
- Learn how to plan and lead events throughout the semester that you are passionate about while developing skills by securing speakers and organizing all details of event activities.
- Provide program updates to the Program Manager and share information as needed with the Development Director to assist in the writing of grant proposals and final reports.

Please contact:

Ben Menghini
benjamin@mcenter.org

APPLY TODAY